About Us

Main Street Theater Company in Woodbury, Connecticut is a non-profit community theatre which entertains, educates, empowers and enriches the cultural lives of our community's children, teens and young adults by providing year round, hands-on learning and personal growth experiences through the development and presentation of live theater and educational programs.

Each season's productions range from time honored classics such as The Wizard of Oz and Beauty and the Beast to contemporary works such as HONK! and junior adaptations of renowned Broadway shows like Annie. Every year over 300 children and young adults perform in our productions, attend and produce our summer acting camps and participate in other performance classes. We strive to provide a strong cultural anchor in our community by providing the opportunity to learn the basic principles and disciplines of theater and to use these tools as a venue for improving life skills. We encourage mentoring, imagination, creativity and possibility.

How You Can Be a Part of It

Our supporters play an integral role in the success of Main Street Theater Company through supporting our productions and programs that are making a difference in the lives of so many. When the curtain rises on a production, we see the joy in the audience and the pride of the performers, crew and directors.

Our challenge remains formidable - balancing income with production and maintenance costs while providing a safe educational, and professional theater experience for our performers and patrons. Your support enables us to continue to enrich the cultural lives of our children and community.
